Program

Julie Cohen

Julie Cohen has been performing stand-up comedy around Los Angeles for the last four years, including hosting Los Angeles's only queer open mic at the venerable West Hollywood lesbian institution The Palms. Julie also writes and produces sketches for the comedy website disastersquad.com, and has edited several reality television shows.

Kyle Schickner

Kyle Schickner is a film producer, writer, director, actor and a bisexual rights activist. He is the founder of FenceSitter Films, a production company devoted to entertainment for women, and sexual and ethnic minorities, and directed the movies "Steam," "Paradise Lost," "Strange Fruit," and "Full Frontal." He also directs and stars in the first bi web series, "Rose By Any Other Name..."

Walter Spencer

Walter Spencer sings and writes quirky songs on guitar and banjo with his unnamed acoustic band, playing a vintage mix of americana, bluegrass, honky tonk and hippy folk. His brand new CD titled "A Sunday Night Roast," includes the song, "Bi the Way" which was featured on the soundtrack of the documentary, "Bi The Way."

Fay Wolf

Originally from Connecticut, Fay Wolf is an L.A.-based actor, singer-songwriter and professional organizer. Her debut EP, "Blankets," has been heard on hit shows like "Grey's Anatomy", "One Tree Hill" and "Covert Affairs". Her recent acting highlights include work in theatre, film, and guest appearances on "Miami Medical", "Numb3rs", "Bones", "Ghost Whisperer" and "NCIS: Los Angeles." She also proudly plays Veronica in the bi web series "Rose By Any Other Name..."
