Long Beach, California, June 30, 2008 – BIG GAY CAR SHOW! The 21st annual Concours d'Elegance Car Show to benefit The Center, Long Beach will take place on Sunday, September 14, 2008 at the Queen Mary. Presented by Great Autos of Yesteryear, and sponsored by Lexus, the event will be open to the public from 10am to 4pm.

Come view a cavalcade of cars representing eight decades of automotive design as these "Luxury Liners" sweep Long Beach Harbor. The beautiful Queen Mary will serve as the backdrop for Sunday's show featuring an impressive cavalcade of "Luxury Liners" - cars representing eight decades of automotive design, including many of the Southland's finest rare classic and vintage cars.

Great Autos of Yesteryear is not only the world's largest local gay car club, it is the world's largest local car club period, with over 1,000 members, representing over 3,000 automobiles. "This event is a way for us, through our hobby, to raise money and support a very deserving charity," said President Michael Berckhardt.

The Center Long Beach has been the primary source for outreach and assistance serving the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender communities since 1977. Today they serve over 21,000 people a year, providing services including support groups, youth services, legal assistance, and referrals for employment, housing, and health care. Their cultural and social activities range from a film festival to educational forums and community groups.

Admission to the show is free, but donations are requested. So, come to the Queen Mary and join the Finest in the Fleet Sunday at Concours d'Elegance 2008.
