

Free monthly financial literacy and education series

Learn from some of the best and brightest Credit Union educators.

The Center Long Beach, in conjunction with Orange County's Credit Union are offering a great opportunity to beef up your knowledge of personal finance.

Facilitator Leticia Mata has been involved in the credit union movement since 1986. She currently serves as Orange County's Credit Union's Assistant Vice President of Community Education and Development. She is the creator of the award-winning CARE Project which offers free bilingual financial literacy education, workshops, and seminars.

Orange County's Credit Union is a member-owner, not-for-profit financial institution. With access to over 28,000 CO-OP network ATMs, Orange County's Credit Union offers lower rates and fewer fees based on the strength of over $947 million in assets. financial literacy education, workshops, and seminars.

Meetings are held the 3rd Saturday of the month February to April 2012.

February 18,
Budgeting for the New Year
March 17
Everything You Need to Know About Credit
April 21
Shrink Your Debt

2017 E. Fourth Street, Long Beach, CA 90814
www.centerLB.org