

HAPPY NEW YEAR

From your friends at

Dear Friend of The Center,

This year has provided us with so many great memories, and we couldn't have made them without you. Check out the snapshots of an incredible year at The Center in the pictures below.

At The Center, we rely on donations from individuals like you to help us continue reaching those in our community most in need. By making a year-end gift to support The Center's programs and services, you enable the thousands of individuals who use our services each year to continue accessing an affirmative, safe, diverse, and supportive community.

With your support, we can continue to expand our much-needed services and create even more wonderful memories in the year to come.

Together, we can make 2016 even better.

In Solidarity,
The LGBTQ Center of Long Beach

P.S. - Your year-end donation can help us ensure a successful new year. If you've already donated, thank you so much! If not, there's still time to make your 2015 tax-deductible contribution to The Center.
