The LGBTQ Center of Long Beach
Presents...

The 2016 Long Beach QFilm Festival
Full Feature and Short Film Lineup Announced.
John Waters' HAIRSPRAY on the beach to kick fest off on August 25.

Long Beach, California - The 2016 Long Beach QFilm Festival will take place September 8th-11th, less than one month from now, at the historic Art Theatre located at 2025 East 4th St. and the neighboring LGBTQ Center of Long Beach, both on Long Beach's renowned "Retro Row." Passes and tickets are now available for purchase through the QFilms festival page at www.qfilmslongbeach.com.

Long Beach's longest-running film festival since 1993, the QFilm Festival annually presents narrative features, documentaries and short films that embody the rich diversity and experiences of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer (LGBTQ) communities. More than 1,500 people attend each year to savor a mix of West Coast, Southern California and local premieres as well some of the most acclaimed features on the film festival circuit. Numerous filmmakers and cast members of the films to be shown will be present for audience discussions after each screening. Festival events will feature numerous parties and opportunities for attendees to meet and mingle with filmmakers, actors, critics and other industry professionals. All screenings take place in the Art Theatre.

For the second year in a row, a free LGBTQ Movie on the Beach will kick off the final days leading up to the festival. John Waters' 1988 classic Hairspray will screen at dusk (approximately 7:30 pm) on Thursday, August 25th at Alfredo's Beach Club, 5100 Ocean Blvd. along the shoreline. The musical-comedy stars Ricki Lake in her screen debut plus an all-star supporting cast that includes Divine, Debbie Harry, Sonny Bono, Jerry Stiller and Pia Zadora. Food and drink will be available for purchase. All are welcome to attend and bring beach chairs or blankets to sit on. The screening will also feature a sneak peak at QFilms' 2016 festival programming.
