

BRENDA RIVERA

Brenda Rivera is Southern California native, first generation Mexican American Latina. Co-owner of Navarro Hospitality Group includes Lola's Mexican Cuisine, The Social List and Portuguese Bend Distilling in Long Beach, CA.

Rivera is a creative entrepreneur with a love for gatherings, travel, and design.

Rivera's presence is felt in the plates, the walls, and on the fabric that is seen throughout some of Long Beach's most innovative restaurants. From the books she has collected or the places she has traveled she always has focus on her passion and is never afraid to show her culture and roots of Los Angeles.

Rivera shines in the menu innovation and the creativity of food flavors, as well as the direction of the spirits programming.

Rivera wears many hats as many small business operators do, but she has ultimately found a passion in sharing her creativity to the world always striving for perfection.

