The Mental Health Program at The LGBTQ Center of Long Beach offers graduate student trainees and interns (the term “intern” will be used to include both trainees and interns) an opportunity to engage, empower and advocate for a more equitable society. Interns chosen to participate in the mental health service program will:

- Train to approach therapeutic responses through a trauma-informed lens that informs how different oppressions and traumas intersect with and impact an individual's identities, relationships, and experience of safety and mental wellness.
- Train on how to identify domestic violence in non-heteronormative relationships, and how to clinically support individuals experiencing or impacted by domestic violence.

Modalities:

Our mental health services incorporate a variety of modalities, including: psychodynamic; cognitive-behavioral; strength-based; person centered; humanistic; and mindfulness approaches
